

Student Praise Band

South Canyon Baptist Youth Ministry
Band Member Covenant

Covenant

The Student Praise Band program is one of the most valuable ministries we have in our student ministry. As such, we require that all band members adhere to the following covenant to ensure that we are capable for the task God has laid out for us. We will hold rigidly to these requirements. Please do not sign this covenant unless you are determined and capable of fulfilling all areas of the covenant. Please email or speak with Pastor Josh or Derek Joyal if you have any questions.

Job Description:

- to lead the students in the SCBC student ministry into worship
- to help set an atmosphere of worship in boilingpoint

A band member must meet the following standards to be eligible to participate in the student praise band:

1. Set an example for other students by living in a way that honors Christ in all areas of your life (language, entertainment choices, attitude, relationships, school, etc, etc.) This also includes setting the example by your behavior and attention during youth group, on and off stage.
2. Be an active part of the youth group and church on a weekly basis.
3. Communicate with Pastor Josh/Derek Joyal and the praise band in a prompt and respectful way.
4. No band member will be allowed to play in youth group unless they have actively participated in the previous week's practice and the Sunday night warm-up practice. Exceptions to this rule are left to the discretion of the Pastor Josh/Derek Joyal. (Missing a practice should always be communicated at least three days in advance unless you are sick or have an emergency situation.)
5. Be on time for practice and rehearsal. ("on time" means on the stage with your instrument and ready to start playing at start time.)
6. Be humble, teachable, respectful, and seek to personally grow in all areas pertaining to your talent, the praise band, and your spiritual life.

Adherence to these guidelines is required to be eligible to participate in the student ministry praise band. This agreement must be signed by both the student and a parent. Any questions or concerns must be taken up directly with Pastor Josh.
