Complaint and Comfort
Psalm 64 (Pg. 479)

Complaint to God

His Complaint is about his enemies

He describes ...

Their Affects

Their Character

Their Number

Their Weapons

Their Methods

Their Targets

Their Thoughts

Comfort in God

His Comfort is from his God

The Consequences & Condemnation of evil

“God has judged sin in Jesus for all who will trust in him, and because of this, at the end God can end evil, without ending us.”

Sermon Study Guide

(Reminder: The purpose of the questions is to explore the text and themes of the sermon. Do not feel a need to go through all of the questions. The goal is to stimulate discussion/reflection and transformation related to the sermon text and themes.)

1. What evidences of grace have you seen since we last met?
2. What stuck out to you from the sermon Sunday?
3. We all experience dissatisfaction. Why should believers make a habit of taking our complaints before God?
4. How does anticipating God's judgement on unrepentant evil, accepting God's judgement of our evil in Jesus, and repenting, take us from complaining to exulting in God?
5. What has the Holy Spirit convicted you of in this sermon?
6. How were you encouraged by this passage?
7. How does this passage connect to or inform our understanding of the gospel?
