

ANOTHER Summer in Psalms

Praise is due to you, Oh God
Psalm 65 (Pg. 480)

You are Good to your People (1-4)

God hears their prayers

God forgives their sins

God satisfies their hearts

You are Great in your Power (5-8)

Who stills the roaring sea, the roaring of the waves?
JESUS– His awesome deeds demonstrated his deity.

Sunrise and Sunset are so glorious that they are compared to a shout for joy.

You are Generous in your Provision (9-13)

God is present in his provision within his creation.

This abundance and overflow is connected to joy.

Sermon Study Guide

(Reminder: The purpose of the questions is to explore the text and themes of the sermon. Do not feel a need to go through all of the questions. The goal is to stimulate discussion/reflection and transformation related to the sermon text and themes.)

1. What evidences of grace have you seen since we last met?
2. What stuck out to you from the sermon Sunday?
3. Notice the references to joy, shouting and singing. What does our joy indicate about our awareness of God's spiritual and physical blessing?
4. How should we view rain in terms of God's presence? Why is it important to not think of God as a clockmaker who wound it up and walked away, but one who is actively providing for all ?
5. What has the Holy Spirit convicted you of in this sermon?
6. How were you encouraged by this passage?
7. How does this passage connect to or inform our understanding of the gospel?
