Life Group Questions adapted from John Stott's commentary on 2 Timothy in The Bible Speaks Today series.

1. Why might Timothy need to be told to 'continue' (2 Timothy 3:14) in what he has learned and firmly believed? What reasons does Paul give for Timothy to do this?
2. How would you answer someone who claimed that only certain parts of the Bible were inspired by God?
3. In what ways is Scripture 'profitable' (2 Timothy 3:16)? What recent examples of this have you seen in your own life?
4. What does Paul say about the sort of preaching he wants Timothy to undertake (2 Timothy 4:2)? How does what he says apply to you?
